Design Competition 'A Million Stories Space2b 2026 - Terms and Conditions

About Space2b and Our Artspace

Space2b is a social enterprise supporting newly arrived migrants, refugees and people seeking asylum to become financially independent. Space2b workspace includes a shop, ArtSpace Gallery, design studio, workshop, café and small business hub in the City of Port Phillip.

As a registered not-for-profit, in exhibiting with us you are also supporting the running of our diverse Programs and events. We attract both professional and emerging artists and are able to give artists exhibiting for the first time, additional mentoring and support.

What are we looking for?

We are searching for new creative talent! And by running this competition we aim to promote and support emerging artists, on our Space2b range of products.

Three winning designs will be chosen and will become part of our Artists range available within our shop. These designs will be printed onto items such as tea towels, soaps and chocolates etc.

The chosen artists will be promoted on each product and instore at 144 Chapel Street, St Kilda.
